SOME OF THE SEALS WHO PERFORM HERE THIS WEEK

Have a look at Nick Williams, manager of the San Francisco Seals who are at present leading the Pacific Coast League race, and a couple of his prize athletes who invade the sanctuwm of Wrigley Field today to open a big series with Oscar Vitt's second place Stars from Hollywood. The gent going through the gyrations on the left is none other than Solly Mishkin, former Hollywood High and Occidental College athlete, who is holding down first base in great style for the leaders. Solly has plenty of pepper and enthusiasm. He'd have to have to get in this pose. Flanking Williams on the right is "Dutch" Ruether, star left-hander, who is also somewhat of a sticker.

Dean Cromwell's strong Trojan squad. Weeks ago the Mercuries would have been lop-sided favorites to win as they pleased, out several things have happened of late to cut down LAAC's point total and now Comstock's charges are rated only slightly superior to their collegiate foes.

HOUSER GOOD PROSPECT

Hartrantt and Hills have retired from competition, and will not come ack for the Amsterdam Clympian. Houser is still available, but has not seen as active as I would like. Howthe much-talked-about Mack House-Nell Clisby "Pasadena matural" at the Clympte probably on May 18th. Cohen is unable to find an out-door spot in Pasadens to hold the bout. Clisby has knocked House out twice, but most of the fana figure that House is the better man. Both Clisby and House hit like dynamite. It is probably the great-est sure-fire punching battle that could be arranged anywhere in the country.
